

Call for Papers

The Empirical Evaluation of Labour Market Programmes

Nuremberg, June, 16/17, 2005

An international research conference at the Institute for Employment Research (IAB), with focus on empirical, experimental and policy oriented papers.

Invited Speakers:

- Costas Meghir (UCL, London, UK)
- Donald B. Rubin (Harvard University, Cambridge, USA)
- Petra E. Todd (University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, USA)
- Joseph Hotz (University of California, Los Angeles, USA)

Registration:

The deadline for submission of paper/abstract (paper preferred) is February 15, 2005. Electronic submission of papers in PostScript, PDF or MS Word format is encouraged (max. 2 MB).

Please submit to: Stefan.bender@iab.de, reference „EVAL 2005“.

Authors will receive notice of acceptance or rejection not later than March 30, 2005.

The conference fee is Euro 150 for participants not presenting a paper. All participants are requested to register not later than May 15, 2005. Papers and additional information on the conference will be made available on the conference web page: <http://iab.de/iab/veranstaltungen/EVAL2005.htm>.

Scientific Committee:

- Stefan Bender (IAB)
- Michael Lechner (University of St. Gallen)
- Jeffrey A. Smith (University of Maryland)
- Susanne Rässler (IAB)