

Studying Innovation and Globalization: An Organizational Perspective

This conference will bring together experts who can help build a national and international infrastructure for the scientific study of innovation in organizations. A particular focus will be on novel approaches to the collection of data on innovation and the insights to be derived. from engaging businesses, research users, policy makers and computer scientists

Sponsors: EU/NSF/IAB

For More information

Phone: 555-555-5555

Fax: 555-555-5555

E-mail: someone@example.com

Sponsors: EU/NSF/IAB

Organizers:

Stefan Bender Rajesh Chandy, Carol Corrado, Georg Licht, Julia Lane.

Date: May29,30, 2009

Location: IAB, Nurnberg Germany

Keynote Speakers

Andrew Jouderkirm 3M

Reinhilde Veguelers,

Invited Plenary Panel

Jeannette Blomberg, IBM, Chris Schunn, University of Pittsburgh, Evelyne Viegas, Microsoft

Timeline

Dec 15: Abstracts due

Jan 15: Preliminary acceptances made

Feb 30: Papers due

March 30: Referee comments returned

April 30: Final paper due

Who should submit papers

- Researchers collecting data.
- Users, particularly social scientists and European policy makers.
- Data collection experts, such as computer and information scientists.
- Confidentiality experts, statisticians and computer/information scientists
- Businesses