Perspectives on (Un-) Employment

10. Interdisciplinary
Ph.D. Workshop

Date:

1 – 2 February, 2018

Location:

Institute for
Employment Research,
Nuremberg,
Germany

Aims and Topics

The IAB Graduate School's 10. interdisciplinary Ph.D. workshop "Perspectives on (Un-) Employment" endeavours to bring together young researchers from different disciplines. This international workshop will provide an opportunity for Ph.D. students to present and discuss their research in a constructive atmosphere, incorporating feedback and advice from a number of experienced researchers. The workshop will focus on, but not be limited to, theoretical and empirical research in the following fields:

- Migration and international perspectives on the labour market
- Health and labour market outcomes
- Intergenerational mobility
- Macroeconomic analysis of labour markets
- Labour market institutions and policies
- Gender differences on the labour market
- Education, qualification and skills
- Methodological aspects of labour market research
- Regional disparities and social inequality
- Labour mobility and dynamics

Keynote Speakers

- Professor Richard Blundell (University College London, Institute for Fiscal Studies)
- Professor Thomas Hinz (University of Konstanz)

Proceedings

We invite Ph.D. students to submit an extended abstract (maximum of 500 words) or a full (preliminary) paper in pdf format to IAB.PHD-WORKSHOP@iab.de. The submission should include your contact information (name, affiliation and email address).

Deadline for submission is 15 October 2017.

Notification of acceptance will be given until 17 November 2017.

Costs

The conference fee is 40 €, which includes refreshments and lunches during the workshop, as well as the conference dinner on 1 February 2018.
