Call for Papers

Workshop on

Evaluation of Passive and Active Labour Market Policies for the Long-Term Unemployed and Social Benefit Recipients

Nuremberg, November 10 – 11, 2006

The workshop discusses recent research that evaluates passive and active labour market policies. Theoretical, empirical, experimental and policy-oriented contributions are welcome. Papers that focus on specific groups like long-term unemployed people or unemployed people who receive means-tested benefits are particularly welcome.

Invited Speaker: Jan C. van Ours (Tilburg University)

Organizer: Joachim Wolff (Institute for Employment Research)

Registration: The submission deadline is June 14, 2006. Electronic versions of the papers have to be submitted in Post Script, PDF or MS Word format. Papers have to be submitted to Anton Nivorozhkin: Anton.Nivorozhkin@iab.de. The decision on acceptance will be made no later than July 10, 2006.

There is no conference fee for participants who present a paper. For external participants who do not present a paper at the workshop the conference fee is €100.

Reimbursement of travel cost: There is a small travel grant for Ph.D. students, who present a paper at the workshop and provide a letter of their supervisor that confirms their current Ph.D. student status. The grant covers 50 percent of the travel cost, but the grant is limited to a maximum of €150.

Papers and further information on the conference will be made available on the conference webpage: <http://iab.de/iab/veranstaltungen/lmp2006.htm>.
