Workshop: Gender and Labour Market Policies

Conference Date: December 7-8, 2007
Conference Location: Federal Employment Agency, 90478 Nuremberg, Germany
Conference Language: English

Topics

The workshop presents recent research on gender-aspects of labour market policies. Theoretical and empirical work from different disciplines – in particular economics, sociology and psychology – is welcome.

The conference committee encourages in particular submissions of papers on the following topics, with a focus on gender-specific aspects:

- Active and activating labour market policies: Selectivity issues and effectiveness of programmes
- Unemployment and passive labour market policies: Unemployment risks, unemployment duration and unemployment benefits
- Labour market participation: Policies regarding occupational choice, working times and child care
- Wages: Gender wage gap, its development and sources (human capital, segregation and discrimination) and policies to reduce wage inequalities
