

Market mechanisms in Germany's active labour market policy

Accreditation and Certification System of Further Vocational Training

24.10.2008

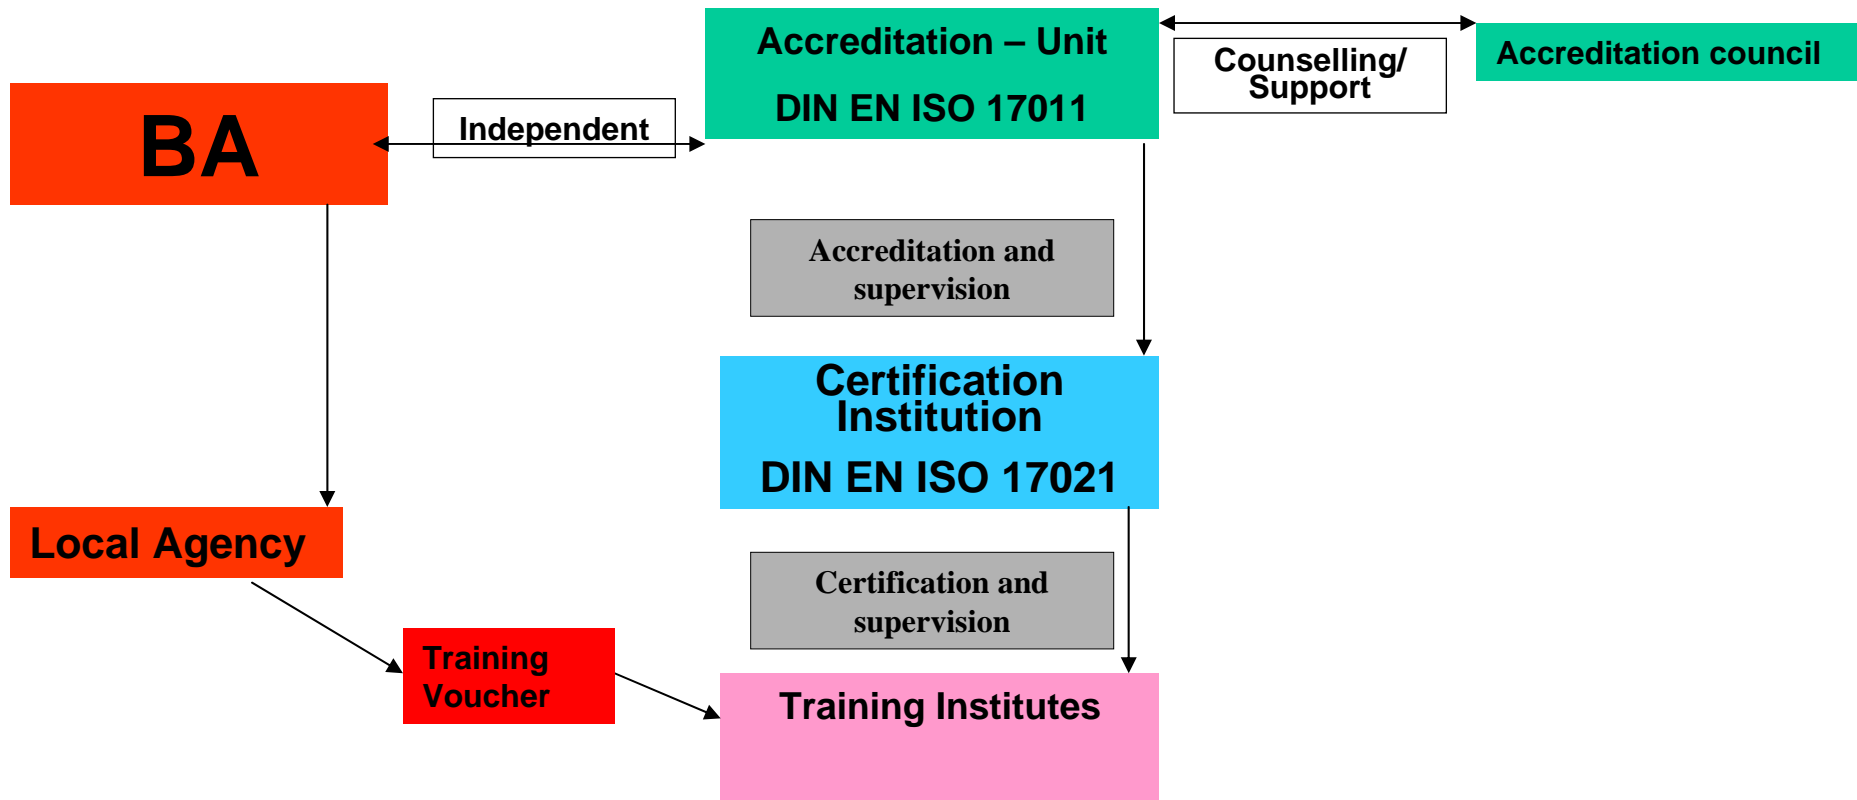

Kurt Berlinger

Principles

- 1. Implementation of market mechanisms in 2004
- 2. Promotion of further vocational training only through a system of accreditation, certification and training vouchers
- 3. Accreditation of certification institutes as a public task
- 4. Certification of training institutes and training measures through private companies
