IAB/HWWI Transnationality of Migrants (TOM) – Workshop on „Frontiers of Migration Research“

July 2-3, 2010
University of
Bamberg, Germany

Topics

The IAB in Nuremberg and HWWI in Hamburg invite you to submit a paper to the TOM workshop 2010. We welcome contributions from the following fields:

- Human capital investments and migration
- Macro impacts of international mobility
- Political economy of immigration policies

The workshop will provide scholars the opportunity to discuss current topics and state-of-the-art methods in the field of migration research. The workshop is open to researchers contributing to the TOM project, carried out within a Marie Curie Research Training Network.

Submission

The deadline for submission is April 10, 2010. Papers must be submitted electronically.

To submit your paper, please send an email to the organizer fiat.yaman@iab.de with "Frontiers conference" as the subject and your paper attached as a PDF-file. Each submitted paper should indicate the email and affiliation of the corresponding author and an abstract. Please underline the name of the presenting author. By submitting a paper, the authors agree that the paper may be made available on the conference website.

A decision on the acceptance of papers will be made by the committee. Authors will be notified by April 30, 2010. Accepted speakers will be asked to send the final version of the paper and register after notification by May 31, 2010. Travel and accommodation costs for speakers and presenters of accepted papers will be reimbursed.

Acknowledgement

The workshop is organised as part of the Marie Curie Research Training Network on Transnationality of Migrants (TOM), which is funded by the European Commission through the Human Resources and Mobility action of its Sixth Framework Programme (EC Contract No. MRTN-CT-2006-035873).
