

Beyond methodological dualism – Combining qualitative and quantitative data

International Conference
Bielefeld University, Center for Interdisciplinary Research (ZIF)
February 09-10, 2015

Program

DAY 1

09.00	Registration
10.00	Welcome
10.15	Keynote “Mapping the Context” ( Plenarsaal )  Udo Kuckartz (Philipps University Marburg) “Mixed Methods Research: Foundations, History and Future”
11.15	Coffee Break
11.30	Keynote “Mixed Methods Designs and Sampling” ( Plenarsaal )  Margrit Schreier (Jacobs University Bremen) “Mixed Methods: Designs and Sampling Issues”
12.30	Lunch
14.00	Keynote “Mixed Methods Data Analysis” ( Plenarsaal )  Kenneth Horvath (University of Education Karlsruhe) “Integrating Qualitative and Quantitative Methods”
15.00	Coffee Break

15.30

Methodological Sessions (parallel)

A1 Design/Sampling (Room 231M)

Stefan Bernhard (IAB) / Michael Grüttner (IAB & FAU Erlangen-Nürnberg)
“Purposive mixed methods sampling – Using administrative data for qualitative studies”

Daniela Grunow (Goethe University Frankfurt)
“Design and Sampling in comparative mixed-methods research”

Gabriele Fischer / Frank Sowa / Stefan Theuer (IAB)
“Together or Apart? Reflections on Sampling Strategies in a Mixed-Methods Study”

Nicolas Legewie (DIW Berlin) / Ingrid Tucci (Bielefeld University and DIW Berlin)
“Is the journey the reward? Life course research and selecting cases for qualitative interviewing in sequential mixed methods designs”

A2 Combined Analysis/Writing-up (Plenarsaal)

Olaf Groh-Samberg (University of Bremen)
“Familial regimes of intergenerational transmission of education”

Andrea Hense (Bielefeld University) / Daniela Schiek (Hamburg University)
“Temporary layoffs and cumulative (dis)advantages: Different perspectives on inequality”

Silke Kohrs (TU Dortmund)
“Different questions – different methods: two examples of studies about the German Middle Classes using mixed methods approaches”

Marie Evertsson (Stockholm University) / Katarina Boye (Örebro University)
“Fathers on call? A mixed methods study on the sharing of care work among new parents.”

18.30

End and 19.30 Dinner in the city center (Restaurant Bernstein, Niederwall 2)

DAY 2

09:00 Keynote “Data Types in Mixed Methods” (Plenarsaal)

Nina Baur (TU Berlin)
“Combining various data types”

10:00 Coffee Break

10.15 Thematic Sessions (parallel)

B 1 Social Inequality Research with Mixed-Methods (Room 231M)

Patrick Sachweh (Goethe University Frankfurt)
“Subjective Social Class and Symbolic Boundaries in Germany: A Mixed-Methods Perspective”

Simon Boone (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)
“The merits of mixed methods research in studying educational inequality: an example of research on educational choice in Flanders (Belgium)”

Tanja Schmidt (INES Berlin)
“Female Breadwinner Couples and the Division of Household labor. A mixed methods Perspective”

B2 Family science research with Mixed-Methods (Plenarsaal)

Laura Bernardi/Emanuela Struffolino (University of Lausanne)
“Transition to lone parenthood and employment trajectories: a mixed methods approach”

Monika Mynarska (Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University)
“Sequences and Narrations: Childlessness in Poland”

Marthe Nicolet (University of Geneva)
“When the family of the deceased says ‘thank you’. Quantitative and content analysis of death notices in Wallis (Switzerland)”

12.15 Lunch

13.45 C1 Migration Research with Mixed-Methods (Room 231M)

Andres Gomensoro (HETS Genf)
“Educational pathways of the children of migrants between trajectories and narrations”

Ilona Relikowski (University Bamberg)
“How can immigrants’ high educational expectations be explained? A mixed-method study on structural opportunities and individual educational experience”

Patrick Simon (INED)/Angéline Escafré-Dublet (Université Lyon 2)
“What it means to belong: a mixed-method inquiry into the national identity of second generations in France”

C2 Labour Market Research with Mixed-Methods (Plenarsaal)

Andreas Hirseland/Mark Trappmann (IAB)
“Unexpected transitions from social benefits to work: A mixed methods project”

Monika Jungbauer-Gans (FAU Erlangen-Nürnberg)
“A mixed methods design for analyzing stigma consciousness of unemployed”

Felix Bühlmann (University of Lausanne)
“Studying occupational trajectories with mixed methods: examples from the National Child Development Study”

15.45 Farewell and informal get together

17.00 End

For further information and registration, please contact:

mm.conference.bielefeld@gmail.com

The workshop has limited places, make sure you register before January 18, 2015!

Organisation: Andrea Hense, Ingrid Tucci, Michael Grüttner, Stefan Bernhard and Laura Bernardi